

Manufacturer's DECLARATION

TO APPLICATION OF RoHS-DIRECTIVE

European Directive 2011/65/EU - Restriction of the use of certain hazardous substances in electrical and electronic equipment

Mann Teknik AB of Strandvägen 16, SE-542 31 Mariestad, Sweden

hereby declares that we are not producing "Electrical and Electronical Equipment" (EEE) as specified in Article 1 of the RoHS-Directive and therefore the directive is not applicable.

Independent from this, we can confirm for our products, that the permitted maximum concentrations in the Annex II of the European Directive 2011/65/EU mentioned substances (lead, mercury, cadmium, hexavalent chromium, PBB and PBDE) will not be exceeded.

This declaration is issued under the sole responsibility of the manufacturer.

Signed for and on behalf of

Mann Teknik AB
