

iglidur® PRT-04 manual clamping, consisting of clamping lever and aluminium block

PRT-04-AD-HK-20

iglidur® PRT-04 manual clamping, consisting of clamping lever and aluminium block

- Suitable for PRT design -04
- Simply screw together
- Part of the extensive modular system
- Can also be retrofitted to existing PRT-04 slewing rings
- Available for all sizes for maximum flexibility

Product description

Introducing the iglidur PRT-04 manual clamping system, designed for effortless operation. This set includes a robust clamping lever and an aluminum block, perfect for the PRT-04 slewing ring bearing series. Its modular design allows for easy expansion with various accessories, ensuring a tailored solution for diverse applications. The clamping lever is easily retrofittable, enhancing performance and reliability while extending service life. Enjoy a maintenance-free experience with this versatile and flexible system.